

A. Simply to let you know. I used it for Fourth of July celebrations. Because ball cartridges have been in that gun for years and if I wanted to oil it I took them out and immediately put it back in my desk. I don't know when I had it out of my desk. I want to ask you one question. Where they smokeless powder cartridges?

No.

Q. Did he tell you the time you called his attention to the gun that he did not need it, he had a rifle?

A. I didn't know he had a rifle.

Q. Didn't you know he brought a rifle to the place?

A. I didn't know he owned a rifle.

Q. How many revolvers owned or had in your possession?

A. One. That is this one.

Q. Why did you get that?

A. I got it some years ago. I suppose maybe for celebrations.

Why, I don't know.

Q. Why did you get ball and cartridge?

A. No special reason. I have no idea.

Q. You know what made you get those cartridges that had ball in it?

A. No I could not enlighten you on the subject.

Q. Do you know what purpose?

A. No. I am positive of that.

Q. Must have been some idea for shooting?

A. I am not certain. It might have been for target practice.

Knowing them to be terribly dangerous I did not use them for practice.

Q. Did any one else have a revolver in the house?

A. No.

Q. Did your sister or Mr. Hall ever caution you to be careful
